

Table 3: Expectations and Results for Biblical and Seth Crucifixion Hypotheses — Target #3

Target Subject: Jesus

Target Time: When Judas is leading the authorities to arrest the person the authorities presume to be Jesus

HYPOTHESES	EXPECTATIONS	RESULT
Biblical: Gethsemane betrayal scene	Greatly upset due to emotions related to betrayal and concern about future pain and suffering	Unsupported
Seth: Jesus is not betrayed	Not upset since betrayal and arrest did not happen, no concern for future pain and suffering	Supported
Location for both biblical version: Garden of Gethsemane	At the base of a steep hill with nearby large or heavy structures, nearby capital city	Unsupported
Location for Seth version	Not at the Garden of Gethsemane	Supported

Target #3: The actual historical figure of Yeshua Ben Yosef at the target time specified below. The viewer is to focus only on the actual person in his actual historical reality, regardless of any culturally accepted historical view or interpretation of this reality, and regardless of any written historical account of this reality. Regardless of any and all popularly accepted views or interpretations, the viewer is to locate the actual person of Yeshua Ben Yosef during the time when Judas Iscariot leads authorities to select a person for arrest who is perceived by the arresting authorities to be Jesus (Yeshua Ben Yosef). The viewer is to describe the surroundings of Yeshua Ben Yosef during this event. The viewer is to enter the mind of Yeshua Ben Yosef to perceive the emotions, thoughts, and mindset of this person at the time of this event.