

Table 4: Expectations and Results for Biblical and Seth Crucifixion Hypotheses — Target #4

Target Subject: Judas Iscariot

Target Time: During the time of death for Judas Iscariot

HYPOTHESES	EXPECTATIONS	RESULT
Biblical: Hanging suicide, or falling with bowels gushing out	Inner conflict, emotional turmoil, guilt	Unsupported
Seth: Judas was faithful to Jesus, and he acted to save Jesus from the arresting authorities	Data that support the general idea of Judas holding a secret from the authorities	Data do not conflict with the Seth hypothesis

Target #4: The actual historical figure of Judas Iscariot at the target time specified below. The viewer is to focus only on the actual person in his actual historical reality, regardless of any culturally accepted historical view or interpretation of this reality, and regardless of any written historical account of this reality. Regardless of any and all popularly accepted views or interpretations, the viewer is to locate the actual person of Judas Iscariot during the time of his death. The viewer is to describe the surroundings of Judas Iscariot during this event. The viewer is to perceive the manner of physical death for Judas Iscariot.